

I support RM-10867 as proposed by the ARRL. If there is any doubt about how often morse code is used a survey of all hams to find out how many are using morse code (or not using) would settle the issue.